Sixteen wagons looded with down from Rigby, Idaho, and joined in guests were Mr. and Mrs. Geo. A. Hicks, Mr. and Mrs. Will Lewis, and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Huber, of Payson, also Mr. Wilson Murray, a student at the B. Y. U., of Provo. The Press wishes Mr. and Mrs. Hicks many happy returns.

BASKET BALL GAME TONIGHT

To-night the local high school basket ball team plays the Springville high school team at the City Pavillon. Although this is not a league game, the outcome is watched with much interest as the teams are evenly matched and the contest bids fair to be interesting. Jones, who has been playing eft guard, has been shifted to center, boys are in the pink of condition and have had some strentious practice lately. A matched game between some cf the players of town and the high school team Tuesday evening resulted in a 62-18 victory for the high school.

Th. Petersen will tell you why.
